

With EU Contribution

Credit Agricole EWC UniCredit Group

European Works Council Generali Group
Comitato Aziendale Europeo Gruppo Generali

Non-financial reporting directive (2014/95/EU): an opportunity to develop the participation and inclusion rights of people with disabilities and prevent the risk of social dumping. The crucial role of EWCs and Trade Unions - VS/2019/0048

ON LINE FINAL CONFERENCE, 24 JUNE 2021

DRAFT AGENDA

09:15 Zoom platform opening, welcome

09:30 Conference opening and coordination

Luciano Malvolti - First Cisl

Project Manager introduction

Giacinto Palladino - First Cisl

Conference presentation: the richness of diversity

Domenico Iodice - First Cisl

Funding diversity

Adriano Pallaro - Banca Etica, Co-Applicant

The inclusion policies in BB Holding

Marco Bartoletti - Founder and President of BB Holding

Abili Oltre achievements

Marino D'angelo - President of Abili Oltre

Coffee break

The European Pillar of Social Rights and the inclusion of diversity

Marco Cilento - ETUC Senior Advisor

The survey on company inclusion

Paola Vinciguerra - First Cisl

Training as a moment of growth and awareness

Anna Masiello - First Cisl

The social partners' negotiation policies

Antonio Masciale - First Cisl

The social partners' contribution

Planned interventions:

Christelle Stutzmann - Crédit Agricole EWC

Carole Bourner - Generali Group EWC

Jana Szaszova - OZ PPaP

Eva Mikulkova - ZOOS OSPPP

Tina Brinchmann Jensen - Finansforbundet

Maja Stefkovska Paneva - Confederation of Free Trade Unions of Macedonia

Short break

The finance companies' point of view

Francesca Bonsi Magnoni - UniCredit Disability Manager

Patrizia Ordasso - Banca Intesa Head of Industrial Relations

Interpreting the role of disability manager: potentialities and perspectives

Marco Pronello - Allianz

Conference conclusions and guidelines for developing synergies between trade unions and EWCs in the field of social inclusion

Domenico Iodice - First Cisl

13.30 End of Conference